Case No. 4:22-cv-01490-JST

NETFLIX, INC.'S UNOPPOSED
ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CHANGE
TIME OF THE CASE MANAGEMENT
CONFERENCE AND STATEMENT

Judge: JON S. TIGAR

18 Pursuant to N.D. Cal. Civil Local Rule 6-3, Netflix, Inc. files this administrative motion to 19 respectfully request that the Case Management Conference ("CMC") be changed from April 19,
20 2022 to a date on or after May 3, 2022, with the Case Management Statement due 7 days before
21 the new requested hearing date. The parties met and conferred by email, and although Plaintiff
22 does not join in this motion, Plaintiff has agreed that it will not oppose Netflix's request to 23 postpone.

24 On March 30, 2022, the Court issued a Scheduling Order that rescheduled the CMC from 25 June 21, 2022 to April 19, 2022.¹ However, Netflix's lead counsel, Sarah Piepmeier, will be out
26

27 ¹ The Court issued this Scheduling Order in response to Netflix's inadvertent ex parte
28 communication requesting scheduling information related to its responsive pleading. Netflix appreciates the Court's attention to the scheduling issues of this case, and apologizes for the ex parte correspondence.

1 of the country that week and the following week, and therefore unavailable until May 2, 2022.
2 Furthermore, Netflix has a technology tutorial for another matter in the San Francisco Courthouse
3 (Judge Donato) on May 2, 2022 (Orders, Broadcom Corp. v. Netflix Inc., 3:20-CV-04677-JD, 4 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 14, 2021), ECF Nos. 183, 191, 196, Text Only Entry, April 1, 2022). As such,
5 Netflix respectfully requests that the CMC be rescheduled to a time on or after May 3, 2022.
